

COACH HOUSE

- Job Title: Visual Merchandiser.
- Salary: Competitive salary – advised upon application
- Job Type: Full Time, permanent, 8am to 4pm.

For over 40 years Coach House has imported and sold captivating, design-led, furniture and homewares throughout the UK and further afield. At Coach House, one of the things we endeavoured to do is to push forward within the British homewares market. We aim to be a company that our employees are proud of, and our customers are loyal to, as well as to provide the most compelling of buying experiences.

Over 40 years, we have grown to become one of the industry's largest and most trusted trade-only names, and we are still a proud family run business. Our extensive breadth of product is not confined to one style but rather reflects a myriad of diverse collections spanning from traditional to contemporary furniture, lighting, design-led accessories, artificial floral, Indian antiques and festive products.

We believe that this is what makes Coach House an inspiring company to work for.

The role will involve planning and merchandising showrooms and trade show stands, alongside our senior visual merchandiser. The role is varied and involves liaising with buyers, interacting with customers and promoting Coach House's innovative spirit at the Lancashire Showroom, Kings Road Showrooms and beyond.

Organisation skills as well as keen attention to detail is essential.

This role requires a collaborative and creative spirit and dedication to meeting deadlines as well as the ability to work under pressure.

Candidates looking for a challenge within a diverse and innovative company, with a strong work ethos and dedication to design and original thinking are welcome to apply.

Key Responsibilities

- Promoting brand consistency across the Lancashire and London Showrooms as well as all Trade Show Exhibition stands
- Keep abreast of industry and design trends to inform decisions, and develop visual strategies to attract clients and boost sales
- Collaboration- strong communication with colleagues and communication with other departments, such as Buying, Marketing and Purchasing.

To apply for this role please send CV and covering letter to HR@coachhouse.com